UTTLE YARNS ABOUT FILMS, STARS, PLAYS AND LIFE IN MOVIES

here is too much affectation, insin- pity,

Dana are sisters.

bar for Goldwyn. Colleen Moore and Claire Windsor have the feminine riles.

I can think of for Helen Lynch land. len Lynch. FAIRBANKS, BUILDER me look upon Douglas Fairbanks ly as an athletic star of the screen ely as an athletic star of the screen he regard him as a great actor. He bably is both, but when the cine-gained a star, it robbed the heav-of the commercial world, for Fairs is primarily an executive. His int picture indicates that.

en members of the industry are e over the vastness of the sets he built for his "Robin Hood" film exterior of the castle set alone is feet long, more than 200 feet high. than 12 carloads have been used the building of the castle. Three of nails, 50,000 square feet of butth and 75 tons of plaster have organization when Fairbanks first ired his face with grease paint.

CINEMAGRAMS

"gimmes" is a disease or habit ar to the feminine sex, if we list wise cracks of the stage and the ictors of newspaper colyums. ly Gleason and Harry Fox, vaudethe "gimme" habit of woman-which meet with rounds of laugh-Strange to say, much of this tter is from the women. Maybe laugh just to show they have a

Rupert Hughes, however, probwill make the masculine jokers on the other side of their faces. is written a photoplay called he" which will be produced by usband, who collaborated on the main situation of the story is

By JAMES W. DEAN

EW YORK, July I.—Helen Lynch. hat name hard for you to pronance? Has it an unpieanast sound appearance? If it were yours would think it an impediment to your ser?

felen Lynch is 13. She recently is story is characteristic of the Rupert Hughes films. They reflect the slight but significant phages of domestle life generally overlooked by photoplaywrights who see dramaturgical possibilities only in situations of sharp contrast.

Thus far Helen Lynch has served rare well as a name, but with success ming ahead, she thinks that name too plain. So prizes are being offered a movie monicker for her.

The film, seemingly, will present and the present an money that Mrs. Hughes' story will a movie monicker for her. Il of which might be passed by a slight mention, but it indicates arrifficiality that clings to the movand that artificiality is one of little things that's "the matter helpywood" money that Mrs. Hughes' story will present a familiar situation to countless thousands.

Hollywood"

The film, seemingly, will present the actual experiences of many of the spectators. Our own experiences become drama when they are held up to the world for laughter, scorn or pity.

rhere is too much affectation, insinity in the movies. Perusing the mes of the featured actresses of the sent and past results in the followlist of names, some real and some umed—Love. Hope, Sweet, Joy, wi, Gloria Dove, Caprice, And we we Marion spelled Maryon; May lied Mae and so on and so on.

The Prisoner of Zenda"—as yet unreleased—after he had played extra bits at the Hollywood studios.

Now McGregor is making rapid strides toward cinema fame.
He was a classmate of Rex Ingram in "The Prisoner of Zenda"—as yet unreleased—after he had played extra bits at the Hollywood studios.

Now McGregor has been selected led Mae and so on and so on.
here's Gloria Hope and June Cae. And the Mother Goose characMarjorie Daw. Shirley Mason and Chains' to be directed by Allen Holune girl entered the movies as Marrite Armstrong. Eric Von Stron. the director, walked out on the one day and told her that she was as known as Miss DuPont. She is, nout benefit of a first name.

revity is supposed to be the soul ttraction in a movie name, yet one ess insists on being called Miss y Miles Minter, although that isn't native name.

Claire Windsor have the feminine riles.

The one type of motion picture that has shown but little progress toward mechanical perfection is the marine picture. The horizon jumps up and down like the vertical sweep of a searchlight. If such scenes are of long duration, weak-stomached souls become seasick from watching them.
Dr. Sidney D. Jacobson, a physician, native name.

aybe the blame for all this silly mess should fall on Mary Pickford.

was once claim Mary Smith.

the thing the movies need is a few spite the roll and pitch of the vessel spite the roll and pitch of the vessel is thing the movies that meri-players who believe that meri-on which it is placed. If this device us work brings success quicker is effective, water scenes will appear an alliterative name. The best as if they were photographed from

> THE MOVIETORIUM Glenn Hunter plays opposite Dor-othy Gish in "The Country Flapper." Joie, the little monkey featured in an episode in "The Four Horsemen."

> The most significant step yet taken the most significant step yet taken toward the establishment of control of the personal conduct of film players is the formation of the Paramount stock company and school. The stated purpose of the stock company and school is to give the members every opportunity to foster and develop the motion picture art to its highest plane. The rules and regulations bear a deeper significance. Their first paradeeper significance. Their first paragraph to it.

Then the picture is completed, 25, persons will have had some part the making of it. And all of this been under the supervision of rbanks. Big Business lost a genius organization when Fairbanks first ared his face with grease paint. are a man, nothing can incapacitate you so much for the arduous work of the studio.

reth Hughes, who has not aped in a worthwhile picture since made a hit in "Sentimental Tom-will play the role of Brother Paul in Maurice Tourneur production of Challes".

Order the studio.

Rule No. 5 reads: Gifts and gratuities to any instructor or officer of the Paramount stock company or anybody else connected with the studio.

Rule No. 8 reads: Be careful in the choice of your associates outside The Life Story of the Three Tal-iges," will be published. It was iten by Mrs. Margaret Talmadge, her of Norma, Constance and Na-have specialized in certain lines of work will conduct classes for mem-bers of the company. This gives opportunity for the enforcement of rules. Any member who falls to at-tain 75 per cent standing in classes, attendance and general deportment is liable to expulsion from the company. Directors at last will have a whip over affected players. One of the regulations is thus satirically worded "Although the stock in trade of the THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME called temperament in the studio will snow. not be tolerated; we are grown men daughter of the forest primeval. One the screen the stage version will pale and women, and our actions should be governed by sanity and common courtesy."

Thus the director is placed in the and comfort.

dent.

Had such an organization been inaugurated months ago, several of the recent Hollywood scandals might have been avoided.

Since the new organization is conbeen avoided.

Since the new organization is confined to one company, only members of that company wil be affected.

However, Paramount is the largest individual producing organization. The effect of the new scheme will be felt throughout the industry.

However, neither mortal tongue nor mortal type is adequate to describe this picture.

House Peters is the woodsman Screen players have thousands of Valli the girl. Each of them does friends whom they never meet. They better work than in any picture of are responsible to those friends. Their their respective careers. Josef Swikpopularity depends on how that responsibility is met. Therefore, any scheme that has as its objective the furtherance of the faith of the public in its created idols works for the general public good.

their respective careers. Joset Swing and its careers and in a character bit shows himself and in a character bit shows himself whi as a master of pantomine, just as he did in "The Four Horsemen."

It is difficult to reason why so romantic a figure as House Peters is not one of the great idols of the structure.

STUDIO GO

The gowns Norma Talmadge will wear in "The Voice From the Minaret" are to be superior to any she has yet worn in pictures. It is to be mount are now in open hoped her quality of acting will equal that in "Smilin' Through."

"The Storm" is coming! And when Only once in a month of Sundays is there a picture that holds a greater appeal for men than for women and The Storm" is the one in the current

"The Storm" is the eternal triangle in its most elemental form, a woman and two men fastened in a mountain shack by an impenetrable wall of

STUDIO SNAPSHOTS.

Cleo Madison will play the feminine lead in 'The Dangerous Age.'

Members of the San Francisco police department played as extras in 'In the Name of the Law' which has a patrolman for hero.

The Kowns Norma Talmadge will not one of the great idols of the screen. He possesses heroic size, is not a poser, has chisel-cut features and attains a high degree of realism in his character portrayals.

Virginia Valli by her performance in "The Storm' earns recognition as one of the best emotional actresses of the day. Reginald Barker directed the picture with rare definess. Some credit for the effectiveness of the players must go to him.

The Long Island studios of Paramount are now in operation. Joseph Henabery, directing Alice Brady in "Missing Millions," enlisted some society debutantes as extras in a ball-"Although the stock in trade of the "Although the stock in trade of the members of the Paramount stock company is their ability to portray their emotions, the place for such portrayal is on the screen and not in the studio. Temperament is a value with its stark realism, awe you with the studio. Temperament out of make your pulse drum a lively tune control is a nuisance to yourself and control is a nuisance to room scene. They arrived, a vision of loveliness, in their private limousines.

MOVIE NEWSREEL. A race horse has been named after Violet Mersereau, who appears in "Nero." It finished its first race after the other horses in the race had gone to the stables. It ran next to last in its next trial.

The story was almost hopeless and the best the late William D. Taylor could make of it was a Kosher Irish Stew, flavored with the piquancy of May McAvor A race horse has been named after

Heler Ferguson will be Bill Russell's leading lady in "The Crusader."

Dorothy Dalton will appear in sell it to obtain rungs for an tion for her sick little brother. Dorothy Dalton will appear in coveralls and sweater again in "On the High Seas." There are only three important roles in the film. Jack Holt and Mitchell Lewis play the Holt and Mitchell Lewis play the the roof by her next-door neighbors.

A new and beautiful dance as dis-A new and beautiful dance as distinctively national as those of Russia, France, Spain and Italy will follow the demise of Jazz, is the opinion of Theodore Kosloff, movie character and Russian dance master.

"And with the passing of jazz dancing we shall find other objectionable things have outlived their fad," says Kosloff. "I mean short skirts, rolled stockings and suggestive dressing. These are merely by-prodskirts, rolled stockings and suggestive dressing. These are merely by-products of syncopation.

"The objection to short skirts isn't that they are indecent, but that a short skirt is graceless. It is no longer a skirt because it has lost its character of drapery.

"Rolled stockings aren't even seductive. They are simply ugly. Either full stockings or no stockings at all would be infinitely better."

There may be something in what Kosloff says, judged from an esthetic Kosloff says, judged from an esthetic viewpoint. However, Kosloff doesn't wear long stockings in dog days and he isn't swathed about the ankles with several yards of superfluous cloth when he desires to walk. If present-day styles of feminine apparel undergo radical changes it will be because woman will change from the practical to the esthetic, not because jazz music and dancing dies out. There is nothing practical in any form of music. If it becomes that it is no longer music.

One great stage spectacle that will go to prove how far more capable is the screen than the stage in pre-senting spectacular effects is "Ren

That play owed its great popularity to mechanical devices that startled the audiences.
Goldwyn has closed a deal with A L. Erlanger for the screen rights one-half the dramatic rights to

The girl, an unsophisticated Hur." When the play is flashed on

BY ALLMAN

Thus the director is placed in the position of school teacher. Fear or temperament may stop Miss Pretty Pout from cutting up didoes especially if her class mark is near 75 per cent.

The rule, however, ought to work both ways. Some directors are as temperamental as the stars.

The entire scheme smacks a bit of school atmosphere which may seem.

The fire becomes so intense the school atmosphere which may seem.

The fire becomes so intense the solution of school teacher. Fear or temperament may for provisions that the other two, whence comes the expression. "by the beard of the prophet." The story whence comes the expression. "by the beard of the prophet." The story worked. He should have been relieved to the head and at the ears. Every sood Moslem imitates the prophet. At tale in Persian folk-fore has it that the prophet stands at the grade."

WALUE OF AN ACTOR.

Hal Cooley started in the movies because he heeded the money. There worked. He should have been relieved at the end of the prophet. The story worked. He should have been relieved to the head and at the ears. Every sood Moslem imitates the prophet. At tale in Persian folk-fore has it that the prophet stands at the grade."

WALUE OF AN ACTOR.

Hal Cooley started in the movies because he needed the money. There worked. He should have been relieved at the beads of the head and at the ears. Every sood Moslem imitates the prophet. At tale in Persian folk-fore has it that the prophet stands at the grade."

WALUE OF AN ACTOR.

Hal Cooley started in the movies because he heeded the money. There worked. He should have been relieved at the bead at the end of the prophet. He story the beard of the prophet. The story worked. He should have been relieved to the head at the ears. Every sood Moslem imitates the prophet. At tale in Persian folk-fore has it that the prophet stands at the grade at the end of the prophet. Solution of the head at the ears. Solution is until the prophet stands at the grade at the solution of the head and the ears. Solution is until the proph

The entire scheme smarks a bit of school atmosphere which may seem out of place in the government of adults who are, after ali, salaried employes.

Nevertheless, some such scheme seems necessary in Hollywood, for the personal conduct of some film players has been less responsible than players has been less responsible that of the average high school student.

The fire becomes so intense the believers who are having difficulty in believers who are having difficulty in shed to save the girl and his rival. They plunge through the fire. The woodsman saves the girl, then returns to reacue the man no matter which way he is facing who had betrayed him. The end is happy.

This is the plot taken from Langplayers has been less responsible than the dense less responsible than the dense less responsible than the dense less responsible than the average high school student.

This is the plot taken from Langplayers has been less responsible than the next that of the average high school student.

This is the plot taken from Langplayers has been less responsible than the next that film But neither since has appeared in a worthwhile picture. They have the cars and behind his head, the prophet can help him no matter which way he is facing when he arrives at the pearly gates.

This is the plot taken from Langplayers have been less responsible than the prophet can help him no matter which way he is facing when he arrives at the pearly gates. Hence the expression, "by the believers who as a beard and long locks at the cars and behind his head, the prophet can help him no matter which way he is facing when he arrives at the pearly gates. Hence the expression, "by the believers who as a beard and long locks at the cars and behind his head, the prophet can help him no matter which way he is facing in a worthwhile picture. They have the characters assigned in the trainer shouted. "John M. Stahl started in a worthwhile picture. May May vo.

This is the plot taken from Langplayers after that film a worthwhile picture. They have the charac

This story was developed in the research work for the filming of thus wasting the ability of such "Omar, the Tent Maker," which will players as Hughes and Miss McAvoy.

Just received a picture of William DeMille, the director. It is the first one I have seen of him without a pipe held close to his face. This new picture shows him with head bent low, as all of the others, but he is holding a cigar instead of the pipe. This would hardly be worth the mentioning except that it indicates complex in the man's make-up. There is affectation in the photo-graphs of himself while the pictures he directs are the most sincere and faithful, to story source of any now

STUDIO GOSSIP. Harry Myers has been released from the cast of "Captain Blackbird" in order to accept a big part in "Ivanhoe," to be filmed in Europe.

Rupert Hughes has started to film 'Gimme' Heine Chadwick has the ead. Others in the cast are George Woodthorpe, Kate Lester and May Wallace, a vaudeville prima donna who makes her film debut in this Cyril Chadwick will play Lord Ure in "The Christian" for Goldwyn. He was an extra in the Vitagraph version, made 10 years ago.

Pearl White will return from Paris arly in July to start work on a early in July Pathe serial.

A round-up of 200,000 reindeer is shown in the next Pathe Review.

"The Top of New York" is one of those hard-seat movies You know! The longer you watch it, the harder the theatre seat becomes and the longer the picture seems. They re

May McAvoy.

May is a shop girl and the night before Christmas she accepts a squirrel coat from her employer so she can sell it to obtain funds for an operation for her wick little heather.

or an East Side tenement.

Her rescuer beats up the villain, because he is the very self-same fellow who ran off with the rescuer's wife years before.

Maybe that isn't all of the story, but it's enough of it. The long arm throughout "The Top of New York"

For no apparent reason artificial ugliness is substituted for natural loveliness. Dorothy Dalton is another actress who has achieved the same displeasing effect with a wig in recent pictures.

Reginald Barker is tions in British Columb picture, "Timber."

Assembling, cutting pictures.

WHAT MARY THINKS

Today, 4:45 p. m.

Big Double Bill

The Daredevil of the Screen

"THE FIGHTING

STREAK"

ALST. JOHN

in His Latest Comedy

"FOOL DAYS"

OGDEN Theatre

'Water Cooled Ventilation: Iced Drinking Water"

AT STUDIO KEYHOLES. John M. Stahl started in movies as an extra at $5 a day ten years ago.

been engaged for the cast of "The Dangerous Age" and the first scenes have been photographed.

WIGS.

Fewer screen actresses have lovelier tresses than May McAvoy. That may be the reason it is covered with a blond wig that is plainly a wig throughout "The Top of New York."

Scenes aboard the Majestic, Olympic and the President Wilson figure in the photodramatization of "The Impossible Mrs. Bellew," starring Gloria Swanson.

Reginald Barker is selecting loca-tions in British Columbia for his next Assembling, cutting and titling of "A Tailor-Made Man," Charles Ray's next, will soon be completed.

MHAT MARY THINKS

Mary Pickford says the personal showing of movies in daylight is now appearances of stars will become less being tested in New York.

FOURTH OF JULY

CELEBRATION

at the

HERMITAGE

Nature's Playground

SPORTS OF ALL KINDS-DANCING AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Everybody Welcome

Ogden Canyon SANITARIUM Be There Today and July 4 for a good time swimming, dancing, picnicking and general recreation. You'll enjoy it.

Ogden's Rathing Resort

Mineral water of varying temperatures. Inside and outside plunges, clean and spacious. New and clean dressing rooms and bathing suits. Fresh water swimming. Refreshments.

Within the City Come where the canyon breezes blow-it's refreshing.

The Water Is Fine

20-Minute Car Service

Harrop & Aadneson

TODAY, 4:45 P. M. Elliott Dexter

Claire Windsor

"GRAND LARCENY"

Added

LATEST PATHE NEWS COMEDY

UTAH THEATRE

Dr. Charles Peart and Miss Lillian Thatcher at the Organ

CELEBRATE THE FOL AT OGDEN'S MOST POPULAR PLAYGROUND

LORIN FARR PA

BIG MATINEE DANCE ALL AFTERNOON FREE CONCERT IN THE EVENING

GRAND BALL AT NI

COME, BRING YOUR LUNCH AND STAY ALL DAY

A Fine Playground and Many Free Attractions for the Children